The 100 Most-cited Articles in Abdominoplasty: A Bibliometric Analysis

Ankur Khajuria, MRCS, PhD; Walton N. Charles, MBBS; Anil Dutt, MBBS; Alfredo Hoyos, MD;

Background: Abdominoplasty is one of the most common aesthetic procedures performed globally. Research in this field is evolving, with recent emphasis on evidence-based surgery optimizing informed consent. This bibliometric analysis aimed to characterize emerging research trends and to assess the methodological
